

Helping your child learn spellings.
Some different ideas to make it more interesting.

Use playdough to make the letters.

Write the word in sand.

Use water to paint the word.

Use individual letters to make the word-
these ones are on beanbags.

Use rainbow writing with two different coloured pens at the same time.

Use colourful writing - write the letters with different coloured pens

Helping your child learn spellings.
Some different ideas to make it more interesting.

Look and make the word
Use magnetic letters to make the word.

Jumble the word and make it again, no looking.
Jumble the word and make it again.

Hide your eyes and take away a letter, what's missing?
Take away a letter, what's missing?

Write with chalk on a blackboard.

Make the word with pasta.

Partition the word into smaller words or groups of letters.

Look, fingerspell, sign, cover, write, check.

Look, fingerspell, cover, write, check.