Raising a Concern/Complaint

If a candidate (or his/her parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification he/she is following, Heathlands encourages him/her to try to resolve this informally in the first instance. In the first instance, they should ~~formally~~ email the Exams Officer outlining their concern/complaint. This will be forwarded to the relevant staff member, e.g. Curriculum Lead Teacher, Head of Centre or Co-Headteacher. The Exams Officer will reply immediately to confirm receipt of concern/complaint and indicate when a reply will be received. Exams Officer will meet with relevant staff and aim to reply to concern, in writing via email, within 10 working days.

If a complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or his/her parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

- A formal complaint should be submitted writing by completing a complaints form
- Forms are available from this policy, which is available to all parents on the school website.
- Completed forms should be returned to the Exams Officer.
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 2 calendar days.

How a formal complaint is investigated

- The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion
- The findings and conclusion will be provided to the complainant within 3 working weeks.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

- Any appeal must be submitted by following the centre's internal appeals procedure and completing an internal-appeals form]
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 10 calendar days
- The appeal will be referred to the Head of Centre, who has overall charge of managing appeals relating to examinations. The Head of Centre may delegate an investigation into the concerns raised to another senior member of staff if relevant.
- The Head of Centre will respond to the appeal in writing stating the outcome of the investigation in accordance with the internal appeals procedure. A copy of this will be kept on file with the Exams Officer.
